Titan — Large Store Operation & Team Management

Titan | Store Manager

THE PROBLEM

The challenge moved beyond individual store tasks: the operation required coordination of executives and a larger store workforce while maintaining business continuity and cost awareness.

MY APPROACH

• Allocated and coordinated team responsibilities.

• Monitored operational priorities and business-critical activities.

• Improved communication and follow-up across team members.

• Maintained process discipline during busy periods.

• Identified unnecessary operational activities.

• Applied a cost-conscious management mindset.

RESULT / BUSINESS VALUE

The experience strengthened managerial capability across people, process, cost and business volume and helped shape the transition toward supply-chain, procurement and operations-management roles.

SKILLS DEMONSTRATED

Team Management • Store Management • Cost Awareness • Operations • Leadership • Decision Making
